SENIORS

On May 29, one of the largest classes to come out of Cheyenne High, will be alumni. Some 285 seniors will be graduated. Good things always seem to come quickly and go the same way, and that is what the seniors will be thinking of the last three years.

Some seniors have been busier than others, but at least as a class it has held up its share of the activities around school. We haven't space to name and explain all the seniors have done for the school on this one page. The rest of the 1948 Pow Wow takes care of that. Just skim through the activity and athletic pages to be convinced!

JUNIORS

This year's Junior Class has taken its full share of responsibilities in the life of the school. We went to the sophomore reception, and also the return. After that we were busy getting ready to put on the annual class play, which this year was the hilarious comedy, "Life Without Father" which kept the audience in stitches for the duration of the show. The class has been well represented in school activities, from sports and athletics to public speaking, debate, dramatics, and the Lariat.

SOPHOMORES

After going through the usual suffering and travail the first week of school which wound up with the Sophomore reception, the class got its feet on the ground and went to work getting ready to put on the Sophomore return. With that job done, and done well, most of the bunch began to feel very much at home in the corridors of Senior High. With the exception of a few who fell by the wayside, most of us found our way into one activity, club, or sport in addition to keeping class work going satisfactorily. Now that the year is nearly over, the opening of a new school year in September is eagerly anticipated.

ROW I: Phyllis Frank, Gloria Bess, Dorothy Ruckman, Marie Montgomery, Thelma Jean Peery, Sadie Romero, Sue Hausbach.

FOOTBALL

Seemingly more effective against out of state opponents, the 1947 football team at Cheyenne High went unbeaten in three games with Colorado and Nebraska foes, but dropped three games in state play while managing to scrape up but two victories during the past season.

With a nucleus of eight lettermen, Coach Okie Blanchard whipped his charges thru a gruelling week of training at the old national guard camp at Pole Mountain in the latter part of August. Following completion of camp, a bombshell burst on Indian hopes when Adsit was involved in an accident and lost for the most of the season. Stunned somewhat by this loss, the Tribe fell before Rock Springs, 13 to 7 in the season opener, but bounded back to beat Alliance 30 to 6. A week later they reached the peak to beat Ft. Collins 18 to 6 in an upset victory over the heavily favored Lambkins.

Pessimism shrouded the Indians as they prepared for their traditional rivals, the Casper Mustangs, October 3. Plagued by a few bad breaks, and not at full strength, Cheyenne was edged out by the Mustangs, 20-19 in a thriller at Warren Bowl. On October 27, much to the satisfaction of a large homecoming crowd, romped to a 31 to 7 decision over the hapless Sheridan Broncs.

A week later the Tribe ran roughshod over the Torrington Trailblazers 46-0, and the following week once again demonstrated its prowess over out of state teams by defeating Grand Junction, 6-0 on their field. Grand Junction went to the semi-finals for the Colorado championship.

A freakish blizzard before kickoff time made it necessary to call off the game here with Pueblo Central, Colorado champions, November 7.

Unable to shake off the effects of two weeks idleness, Cheyenne ended its season on a dismal note Nov. 15 at Laramie, falling before the inspired Plainsmen, 12-0.

Andy Bunten, Bob Buckles, and Dick Haag however won places on various all-state mythical teams.

STATE CHAMPIONS

The Tribe clearly showed its championship class in the state tournament by trouncing the Lovell Bulldogs 55-29 in the finals after beating Cody 48-81, Sheridan 46-38, and Kemmerer 60-49 on successive nights. The performance of the team was so smooth in the final game that there was no doubt about the result. Andy Bunten and Dick "Gunder" Haag won individual honors by placing on the all-state team.

Cheyenne started its season by trouncing Ft. Collins 46-18, repeating the process a week later by a 52-22 score. A night later they humbled the Greeley Wildcats, 54-39. A last minute basket by Andy Bunten gave the Tribe a 39-38 margin against Rawlins in the first home floor contest with a state five. Midwest succumbed to the "Scat Kids" the following week 59-37. The Indians journeyed to Denver January 10 to play the eventual Colorado champions, Manual. When the fray ended, the Tribe had emerged with a 47-42 victory. Rock Springs was out-classed on the home floor 48-26, January 16; and the following week the squad again went to Denver to swamp Holy Family 63-30 at the city auditorium. Laramie was tougher that week, but was turned back 37-27. Casper was no competition, losing to the Tribe 30-56 and 32-59 on the Cheyenne floor.

Unbeaten over an all game winning streak, the Indians departed for their annual western trip with tomahawks whetted for three more scalps. However the Rawlins Outlaws had a well prepared ambush and gave the Tribe a 53-43 licking. The Tribesmen managed to salvage some of their prestige by whipping Green River 49-40 and Rock Springs 54-48. On the succeeding week the Nebraska trip was successful, with Torrington and Scottsbluff scalps dangling from their belts with 54-23 and 72-39 scores.

February 19 the Capital City crew beat back a determined Wheatland team 36-29, and then headed for Casper and a two game series. Cheyenne made it three in a row in the opener Friday by a 49-38 count, but to the chargin of the experts and joy of the Casper fans, lost to the Mustangs in the series final, 35-39. The next week the "Scat Kids" rang down the curtain on the regular season play with a pair of wins over Torrington 70-38 and Laramie 58-30.

Without extending themselves, the Tribe defended its district crown at the Wheatland tourney. In the semi-finals the Indians beat Lusk 50-27 and blasted Wheatland 42-29 to annex their fifth successive district title.

Eight seniors: Bunten, Haag, Oslund, Buckles, Petry, Nash, Kingham, and Yoeman, bulwarked this years team and were instrumental in the fine showing made under the careful guidance of Coach "Okie" Blanchard.

Back: Dean Collins, Jim Runyon, Chuck Afflerbach, Ed McClain, Charles Bell, Mgr.; Cliff Stevens, Bill Reed, Howard Herbst, Tod McKinney.
 Second: Coach Okie Blanchard, Bob Van Alyne, Gerald Cudney, Dick Skinner, Willard White, Keith Cooper, Jim Adsit, Earl Cochran, Bill Sinclair.

SOPHOMORE SQUAD

Under the direction of Coach Georges, the Sophomore squad went through a successful season, winning the majority of its games. Most important, however, is the experience the members got which will help them so much when tryouts for the varsity are held this fall.

INTRAMURAL CHAMPS

Back: Frear, Valdez, Cheever.
 Front: Brummond, Mabie, Dunston, Taylor.

SWIMMING

Although the swimming season is not over as the Pow Wow goes to press, the team has had a fairly good season under the direction of Coach Murphy. Two new records were set this year by Brian Murphy and John Haydon. Meets were held with Ft Collins and Casper.

WRESTLING

Under the direction of Mr. Clark, wrestling has become firmly established as a competitive sport. After getting off to a slow start against Loveland, Cody, and Laramie, the squad came back to defeat Laramie. The squad also made a trip to Greeley.

TRACK

With a nucleus of seven lettermen, Coach Okie Blanchard hopes to assemble sufficient additional strength to regain the state track crown which the Tribe lost to Rock Springs last year with the Indians coming in second.

Of the veterans, Nash will return in the sprints and weights; Jim Adsit in the weights and middle distances; Dale Martin and Max Satchell are back in the middle distance runs, with Andy Bunten and Dick Haag in the hurdles.

Don Olcott, who won his letter last year while in the ninth grade, will strengthen the squad in field events, especially the pole vault.

STUDENT MANAGERS

Dean Jensen, Keith Kvenvolden, Gordon Benesh, Conrad Sherwood, Sparkie Jones

The girls began their year's sports activities with tennis. A tournament was held in the fall with the single and double matches. Then a tournament was held in baseball with ten or more teams competing. The White-Socks won the baseball championship. After the baseball season is over we come indoors to some of our great indoor sports, basketball, volleyball, and ping-pong. There is great fun in these sports and there are six or more teams competing for the championship.

Basketball is a sport that most every girl looks forward to every year. There are ten and more teams entered in this great sport, with lots of fun and good sportsmanship shown. Throughout the year there are many other tournaments held. They are as follows: ping pong, bowling, swimming, and horseshoe. These are played by many individuals, and they all have great fun with hard work.

The award for each winner of the tournament is having her name or team's name put on the plaque which is put up in the Physical Education office.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

To be elected a member of the National Honor Society is one of the highest student honors. The basis for election to this society is: Leadership—demonstrating, contributing and initiating ideas for the life of the school; Service—a willingness to render any service to or for the school; Character—demonstrating qualities as morality, achievement, and personality; and Scholastic Achievement—the student must be in the upper one-third of his class. Only five per cent of the junior class and fifteen per cent of the senior class may be elected. They are lected by the faculty members.

The highlight of the year is the initiation ceremony at an assembly, in which the old members tell the purpose and aims of the society and initiate their new members. An annual picnic is always held each year also.

The officers are as follows: president, Betty Fern Hoyt; vice-president, Betty Engleman; and secretary-treasurer, Carolyn Groves. Sponsors of the organization are Alice Williamson, chairman; Wilhelmina Miller, Myrl Gibson, Mrs. Pearl Cook, Elva Adams, Mr. Clyde Owens, Mr. Riley Snow, and Mr. C. H. Blanchard.

STUDENT COUNCIL

To train responsible students to make their own laws and enforce them, to settle problems of interest to all the members of the school is the purpose of the Student Council. This organization meets whenever an occasion makes necessary a decision. The Student Council, as the center of the student body for C.H.S., has representatives from all clubs, and from every class (these are the class officers). During the year the council has sponsored several mixers, The Mid-Year formal, the Musicales, and other vital functions. Officers of the Student Council are: Andy Buntin, President Gordon Benesh, Secretary.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The Quill and Scroll is an International honorary organization for students who have done outstanding work in journalism. To become a member, one must be in the upper third of his class, and must have held a responsible position on either the yearbook or the newspaper. Officers of the club must be Seniors. Each member receives a pin signifying membership at the time of the National Honor Society initiation assembly. This year's new members were entertained at an initiation banquet in March.

TOMAHAWKS

One of the outstanding pep organizations of the school has always been the hall mark of the Tomahawk Club. These enthusiastic girls in their red and black jackets are always on the sidelines cheering our team on to victory. Some of their other important functions are the Tomahawk Turnabout every year, Homecoming Assemblies, time keepers for speech meets, selling candy at games, and they are always willing to support other groups activities.

To become a Tomahawk the girl must have and maintain a two point five average and be voted in by the girls of their respective classes.

Officers are Mary Mortensen, president; Ruth Gardner, vice-president; and Shirley Kenney, secretary. Sponsors are Miss Myrl Gibson and Miss Mary Dudley.

BIG SISTERS

This Senior Group, instituted for the purpose of aiding Sophomore girls, has been one of the most effective groups of its kind since it began. Each Spring, the Sophomore girls are invited to a Tea sponsored by this group. They also sponsor the Sadie Hawkins Dance. The organization has sponsored mixers and aided whenever possible in forwarding school spirit and understanding, under the able sponsorship of Mrs. Cook.

PEPSTERS

The Pepsters, sponsored by Mrs. Tebbs and Miss Daly, have done many things this year. They gave a skit during halftime at a basketball game, gave a pep assembly, and chartered buses to many games including the tournament at Laramie.

In the spring they sponsored a dance.

The officers are: President, Pat Reeves; Vice-President, Edith Nelson; Secretary, Janice Keldsen; and Treasurer, Janet Davis.

THESPIANS

The local troupe of the Thespians is the dramatic honor society for Cheyenne High School. To become a member of this organization one must have done outstanding work in the field of acting or production. Highlight of the season is the annual drama night, presented in April, and consisting of one act plays. Officers are Carolyn Groves, president; Sharon Strimling, vice-president; and Janice Reed, secretary. Miss Hatch is sponsor.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

Is the school organization which recognizes outstanding art in public speaking and debate. The local NFL chapter participates in debate, panels, declamations, radio, and after-dinner speaking. Its membership has made an exceptional record in competitive forensics this year in the Rocky Mountain region. The group is sponsored by Miss Yonick.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club, sponsored by Miss Cooper, has been very active this year. They travelled to Laramie in November, and went on a conducted tour of the Science Departments of the University. In December three entries were submitted to the National Science Talent Search. In March, several participants from Cheyenne were included on a program given in Laramie at a meeting of the State Junior Academy of Science. First semester officers included; Conrad Sherwood, President; Bob Scott, Vice-President; Keith Kvenvolden, Secretary-Treasurer.

F H A

Future Homemakers of America sponsored a number of projects during the year, including a district meeting for a number of schools in the region, and had the national adviser here as speaker. Phyllis Jack is state treasurer of state FHA. The group, sponsored by Miss Ford, also took part in the state meeting at Laramie in April.

THE CONCERT CHOIR

The outstanding choir in the music department is the Concert Choir, which is composed of Juniors and Seniors who were picked carefully in the fall. The group has taken part in many school programs and outside activities. A few of the more important were: the annual Christmas program; the Operetta, "The Mikado"; they also took part in the Music Festival held in Rawlins; a concert with the Band and Orchestra was given in February. The proceeds were used to purchase new maroon robes for the Choir. Their last two programs were Baccalaureate and Commencement, which ended an eventful and successful year.

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Girls Athletic was organized in the fall of 1934 with the purpose of promoting interest in girls athletics in high school.

The organization promotes tournaments in softball, volleyball, tennis, ping pong, basketball, horseshoes, and bowling. For every tournament played each player receives points. Points are awarded for other outside activities that take energy, such as hiking, swimming, dancing, etc. Each person must have at least fifty points before she can be accepted as a member. Two initiations are held each year, which admit Sophomores, Juniors or Seniors. As points are increased, awards are given. Officers are: Arlene Levitt, president; Mary Mortensen, vice-president; Ruth Gardner, secretary treasurer; and Shirley Kinney, student council representative.

PAN-AMERICAN CLUB

The Pan-American Club was organized in 1938 under the sponsorship of Miss Mildred Beck. The purpose of the club is to promote good relations between North and South America and to study the customs and habits of the countries. Club officers are: Mary Pollare, and Conrad Sherwood, co-presidents; Dorothy Davis, secretary; Sparkie Jones, sergeant-at-arms; Mary McKay, student council representative; and Wilma Carlberg, reporter. The annual initiation banquet was held in the fall. The year was ended with a joint meeting with the Future Homemakers and a Pan-American Day program.

LATIN CLUB

The SPQR, now in its third year, completed a very active year which was highlighted with a Roman banquet and a mixer. The club sold pencils before and after school. They are affiliated with the National Junior Classical League.

"C" CLUB

Comprised of boys who have won letters in major sports, the C Club is one of the most exclusive boys organizations in school. But in Cheyenne High under the sponsorship of Coach Okie Blanchard, it is more than just an honor society for athletes. The C Club has sponsored a boxing tournament which has become increasingly popular with the boys. Traditionally the members of the C Club assist in the supervision of the halls during fire drills and are prepared to act in an emergency. The organization has also helped from time to time in campaigns for improving the school.

Officers of the club are Jim Adsit, president; Carol Clark, vice-president; Verl Nash, secretary; Bob Buckles, treasurer; Bud Federer, representative; and George Kingham, chief.

BAND

Having grown from a fifteen-piece infant, to a growing, thriving 58-piece adult, there is no end to the inspiration and pleasure which this group of interested music lovers gives.

Whether at football games or at our own auditorium, whether beating out a good old school song or a classic, the band was that something all of us needed to make us feel that we were all on one team. Winning top honors in the Festival, having the Concert Group-Band-Orchestra Concert, marching in the Memorial Day parade, and participating in extra assemblies made us appreciate them all the more. It's good when people can come together with such a bond between them as music.

This year, the orchestra has grown both in size and importance. At the beginning of the year the orchestra played for the Operetta, "The Mikado" as one of their main projects. In February, the Orchestra participated in a Concert with the Band and Concert Group. Solo groups and ensembles were organized and took part in assemblies and the Music Festival at Rawlins.

TRIBE SEEKS FOURTH WIN AGAINST BLAZERS

INDIANS HEAVILY FAVORED IN FRIDAY NIGHT'S TILT

From their smashing 31-to-7 homecoming victory over the Broncos, Cheyenne's Indians will be seeking to notch up their fourth win of the campaign Friday when they journey to on to do battle with Coach Hank Rohn's Torrington Trailblazers.

The team came through its training with Sheridan unscathed in its top shape for their homecoming game against the Trailblazers.

Absences and Tardies Costly to Student When Not Excused

Here's a tip to students in Cheyenne High School on absences and tardies. If you don't understand our system, here is how it works. Of course, after you have been absent, you are required to bring an excuse, signed by one of your parents. This is to eliminate any doubt or suspicion as to whether or not you ditched, or were really ill.

Now we know that no one in Cheyenne High School ever ditches classes, but just in case, remember that you automatically knock four per cent off your grades each time you have an unexcused absence. In this day and age, no student can afford very many of those deductions.

Now, let's go on to the subject of tardies. Unless it is a very good excuse for being late to class, you get an unexcused tardy—which means two per cent off your grades. By a good excuse, is not meant that you had to walk home to class. We know you're late about her, and so does she, but she doesn't need that extra long parking hand squeeze to reassure her.

All girls get their excuse blanks from the school nurse. The last day of the semester will be taken for special tests for members of the senior class which are given each year.

THEY WILL LEAD SENIOR CLASS

GIRLS ARE CHOSEN TO BE TOMAHAWKS

New members have been elected to membership in Tomahawks, honorary pep club. They are: Mary Mortensen, president; Don Yeaman, secretary-treasurer; and Jim Adair, council representative, who is not in the picture.

Concert Group Will Appear at Convention

The concert group is preparing for its first appearance of the year which will be at the District Teachers Convention at the University of Wyoming. The group consists of things the Romans did, and then we have those who are color blind. (Continued on Page Four)

Tribe Launches Western Invasion Wednesday OPEN TOUR AGAINST OUTLAWS TONIGHT

Intent on keeping their unblemished season's record intact, the warring Cheyenne Indians, 18 strong, departed today at noon from the capital city, bound for Rawlins and their first stop on their tough three-game tour through Southwestern Wyoming.

The unbeaten Indians collide with the strong Rawlins Outlaws at the small Rawlins gym tonight, owing on to Green River Thursday to keep their important engagement with Coach Jim Weil's powerful Green River Wolves and then trek to Rock Springs Friday where they will close their rough road trip against the Rock Springs Tigers.

Before leaving Cheyenne the Indian Generalissimo foresaw a tough road trip for his charges, who are currently riding the crest of an "Asper Mustangs in that."

Given Saturday Night Large Cast Included In Comedy Revue

Saturday evening at eight o'clock, the curtain will rise on the R.O.T.C. variety show, To the Rear March, at the high school auditorium. The show is patterned after the Olson and Johnson type of stage entertainment. It is built around a prologue, three skits, a military drill and interlaced with novelty songs sung by the R.O.T.C. Quartet and the Clint, Texas warblers. Blaine Blonquist and his Swing Club will furnish the music.

NFL Initiation Banquet Planned

The annual initiation banquet of the National Forensic League will be held at the Terrace Gardens of the Trail cafe sometime during the next few weeks. It was announced today by Miss Cora Jane Yonick, sponsor.

Music Groups to Give Concert Tonight

On Wednesday evening, the high school band, orchestra and concert choir will present a varied musical program at the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock. Included in the program will be selections of popular music, marches and sacred and secular music.

Directs Instrumental Groups in Musicale

The Madrigal singers will present songs of the Elizabethan period sung in the Madrigal style—seated around a table. Gordon Benesh will read the Lincoln's "Gettysburg Address" with the band accompanying.

Eleanor Peterson will play "Nadine" by Henton as a saxophone solo. Jim Newman at the trombone will present "La Petite Suzanne" by Pryor. A violin solo by Janet Davis entitled "Caprice Viennoise" by Fritz Kreisler.

June Hook and Jim Runyon will be presented in a vocal duet. The orchestra will play the overture "Richard the Third" by Gorman, and also the Piano Concerto number one by Tchaikowsky, excerpts from Beethoven's 5th Symphony.

Patrol of the Tin Soldiers by Perlene. The band will play the Stars and Stripes Forever, by Sousa and the American Patrol by Meacham will be the final selection.

Proceeds of the event, which is sponsored by the Student Council will be used to defray part of the Well, kids, here comes ye old reporter of the daily dirt and gab again. It seems that quite a bit of stuff has been going on lately that must be told, so here goes with the business of the day.

Here is a comparatively new "steady" couple: Jeannine Hagood and Conrad Lesser; and then we have it from good authority that Willard White has his eye on the freshman class—couldn't be that her name is Sally Cook, could it, Willard? Well! Well! What have we here? Seems
